& the Office of Thrift Supervision (OTS),
The Professional Risk Managers'
International Association (PRMIA) presents:

PERSPECTIVES ON OPERATIONAL RISKS TO GLOBAL FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

Monday, September 22, 2008
9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

L. William Seidman Center
Building C
3501 Fairfax Drive
Arlington, VA 22226

OVERVIEW

The Professional Risk Managers International Association (PRMIA) is a non-profit organization that relies on professional risk management volunteers to coordinate education and knowledge sharing around topics of interest in the financial risk management space. The "Perspectives On Operational Risks To Global Financial Institutions" Conference focuses on how assumptions about correlation and causality impact risk management decisions. Speakers will address whether there need to be changes to current methods of measuring market, credit, and operational risk in order for models to be more closely aligned with management requirements.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Banks, regulators, government sponsored enterprises (GSEs), accounting firms, and others interested in the risk management discipline.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided.
Dress attire is Business Casual
